

May 2007- Chapter #30 hosted the AHEPA Sunday coffee hour along with Chapter #364 and Daughters of Penelope Chapter #27 at the Annunciation Cathedral. A free will offering was collected and donated to the Cathedral's Sunday School Program.

June 2007- Gus Stavrides was elected President for a second term. He led the delegates for the 76th Capital District Convention and will lead the delegates to the 86th National Convention in July. With the initiation of 10 members this year, the roster was increased by 9.5%.

Worthington Chapter #30 is the oldest chapter in Maryland and for 85 years has continued the AHEPA ideals and principles, leading the Greek American community in Baltimore. President Gus Stavrides is a strong supporter of close relationships with the Daughters of Penelope and Lord Baltimore Chapters.

There are plans for the coming year to host events together.
